EVENTS/EXHIBITIONS NOT TO BE MISSED

- Festival Aperto – Until November, 19th 2023

Concerts, performances, choreographies, workshops, meetings, exhibitions and shows presented by Fondazione I Teatri in collaboration with Reggio Parma Festival, to explore the present while looking towards the future.

Collezione Maramotti

- Andrea Deplazes – “Burning Green” – Until October, 29th 2023

Andrea Deplazes, a young Swiss artist based in Marseille, presents his first solo exhibition in Italy at the Pattern Room of the Collezione Maramotti. Within a space specially designed for the exhibition, Deplazes showcases a body of work consisting of over thirty pieces derived from an exploration of family relationships and the natural and anthropized environment. The “burning green” in the title may refer to the landscape, environmental crisis, land exploitation, military sphere, or the traces of fluorescent colours that characterize his works.

- Giulia Andreani - “L’improduttiva” – From October 29 to March 10, 2024 - Collezione Maramotti

For her first institutional solo exhibition in Italy, Giulia Andreani presents a project composed of a coherent body of new paintings and watercolours. Embracing the technique of photomontage, Andreani juxtaposes elements taken from real images, often from archives, and imaginative details. The subjects emerge on the canvas through a single colour, Payne's grey. The conceptual starting point for “L’improduttiva” was the iconographic materials found in some Reggio Emilia archives, through which Andreani investigated the city's historical and socio-political context, focusing on the notions of confinement and imprisonment, closely linked to the history of women.

Visits to the permanent collection, by reservation, are limited to a maximum of 25 visitors at a time.

Free admission. Start times for visit to the permanent collection: Thursday and Friday at 3:00 PM; Saturday and Sunday at 10:30 AM or 3:00 PM.

Access to temporary exhibitions is free on Thursday and Friday from 2:30 PM to 6:30 PM; Saturday from 10:30 AM to 6:30 PM.
